Circulation of Fake Currency

*359. DR. GOPALRAO VITHALRAO PATIL: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item titled, "Singapore to U.P. townships: Money racket busted", appearing in the Indian Express dated the 7th November, 1999; and

(b) if so, what steps are being taken by Government to curb fake currency notes distributed mainly in small towns of the country?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) 'Police' being a State subject as per the Seventh Schedule to the Constituton of India, prevention of crime is primarily the responsibility of the State Governments. However, in order to combat counterfeiting, currency notes are now printed with additional security features. The Reserve Bank of India issues press releases, from time to time, to enable the public to distinguish between genuine and fake currency notes. The Border Security has alerted its forward troops to be more vigilant so as to ensure that such currency notes are not smuggled into the country. The Central Bureau of Investigation has creasted a Special Unit for exclusive investigation of counterfeit currency notes.

Jute Growers in the country

*360. SHRI DIPANKAR MUKHERJEE:
SHRI NILOTPAL BASU:
Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state:

(a) the number of jute growers in the country; and

(b) the steps taken by Government on the plight of jute growers because of reluctance of JCI to procure jute from farmers, and non-operation of NJMC mills?

THE MINISTER OF TEXTILES (SHRI KASHIRAM RANA): (a) Around 4 million agricultural families are involved in jute cultivation.

(b) As the prices of raw jute in upcountry and local markets generally have been ruling well above minimum support price in the current season JCI was not required to carry out any major price support operation. However, in some isolated pockets where prices touched MSP level, JCI carried out price support operation which restored price above MSP level.

NJMC consumes only about 5% of total raw jute consumption of jute industry. The prevailing prices are above MSP and hence the jute growers have not been affected adversely due to any absence of buying support from NJMC.
